

BCEA Clinic Code of Conduct

Respect for others

I agree to act with respect toward all those I come into contact with through sport.
This means I refrain from comments or behaviours which are abusive, offensive, racist, sexist or otherwise belittling or demeaning to others.
I do not harass or tolerate harassment by others.
I respect others as persons and treat them with dignity.
I respect the privacy of others.
I do not endanger the safety of others through my actions.

Respect for self

I act with fairness and integrity in the pursuit of excellent sport. I practice drug-free sport and accept doping control.
I avoid the abuse of alcohol and illegal drugs.

Respect for horse

If there is a need to use tranquilizer or other calming medication on any horse in my care, during the clinic, I will bring it to the attention of the BCEA representative prior to admitting the medication.
I do not use excessive disciplinary action when dealing with any horse in my care.
I always keep the comfort and safety of any horse in my care paramount at all times.

Respect for property

I respect the property and livelihood of others, which means refraining from vandalism, theft, and other forms of mischief.

Failure to comply with this Code of Conduct may result in disciplinary action in accordance with the Discipline Policy of BCEA. Such action may result in the member losing the privileges that come from membership in BCEA, including the opportunity to participate in BCEA activities.
